

Express, May 23, 1982
AP/NBC poll

3 out of 4 Americans believe that any use of nuclear weapons will lead
to total war. 75%

50% believe US should not lag behind the Soviet Union, as this increases the risk of complete destruction.

83% think that a Freeze now is desirable (this includes  $\frac{1}{3}$  of those above)

("They mostly don't believe Reagan's famous 'doctrine of invulnerability,' that the US is superior

75% believe, like McNamara, in NEU

$$\frac{2}{3} \times \frac{1}{2} = \frac{1}{3}$$

Edmonton, May 23, 1980

AP/NCC poll

3 out of 4 Canadians believe that any use of nuclear weapons would lead
to total war. 75%

50% believe US should not try to limit
the 50 - nuclear weapons, as this increases the risk of conflict situation.

83% think that a freeze now is desirable. (The number is  $\frac{1}{3}$  of those above)

("They... they don't believe Reagan knows 'what's in it for humanity,' that he is so impulsive")

75% believe the McN is NEU

$$\frac{2}{3} \times \frac{1}{3} = \frac{1}{3}$$